COMMUNITY RESOURCE FAIR CONNECTS PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES TO SUPPORTS AND SERVICES

Washington, DC—On Thursday, October 20, 2016, the D.C. Department on Disability Services will host a Community Resource Fair, 10 am – 6 pm, at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center, 801 Mount Vernon Place, NW. This free event will connect youth and adults with disabilities, and their families, to supports and services that will help them reach their goals for self-sufficiency and independence.

The Community Resource Fair offers participants a unique opportunity to meet an array of Service Providers offering: individualized day supports; residential services; clinical and wellness services; and employment services. The day will feature fun activities and special presentations, including: the senior dance troupe MC Steppers; relaxation techniques; using assistive technology; apprenticeship programs; self-advocacy; and accessing services through the Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC).
