

Government of the District of Columbia
DEPARTMENT ON DISABILITY SERVICES

Decision-Making Rights for People with Disabilities

Tuesday, June 6, 6 – 7 pm
RISE Demonstration Center
2730 M. L. King, Jr. Avenue, SE, Washington, DC 20032
Nearest Metro Station: Congress Height; free parking lot onsite

OR

Thursday, June 8, 11 am - Noon
Shaw (Watha T .Daniel) Public Library
1630 7th Street, NW, Washington DC 20001
Nearest Metro Station: Shaw-Howard; limited street parking

Come learn about proposed legislation that:

- seeks to end all new civil commitment for people with intellectual disabilities;
- provides an opportunity for people currently committed to end court oversight;
- recognizes supported decision-making as a less restrictive alternative to guardianship; and
- enables people with disabilities to make as many choices as they can about their own lives.

To request reasonable accommodations, contact Jestina Heroe at (202) 730-1586 or jestina.heroe@dc.gov. Learn more about the bill at: www.dds.dc.gov, search Decision Making Rights for People with Disabilities.

Choice Matters!

