

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SPECIALIST (APPLICATIONS SOFTWARE)

CS-2210-12

$66,306 - $84,828

If you like to stay busy and immersed in cultural activities, then Washington, DC is the place to be! Museums, restaurants, great climate, green space and job opportunities are among the many positives of living in the Nation's Capital. Not to mention the residents of the District of Columbia are highly educated and the region has some of the best schools in the country. Each day the District of Columbia continues to be ranked in the top 10 of thriving city indicators where you can live, work and play.

This position is located in the Department on Disability Services, Administrative Services, Office of Information Technology. The purpose of this position involves the design, documentation, development, modification, testing, installation, implementation, and support of new or existing applications software.

The incumbent is expected to perform a variety of assignments that involve identifying and analyzing user requirements for the design and development of software applications to meet the automation needs of users throughout DDS; performing feasibility studies and developing application programming specifications and documentation; and analyzing existing hardware and software for modification to meet new and recurring changes.

Qualifications

Basic Requirements: Applicant must have one (1) year of Specialized Experience at the next lower grade-level. Experience that equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform successfully the duties of the position, and that is typically in or related to designing, documenting, developing, modifying, testing, installing, and implementing new or existing applications software.

Bilingual Preferred

Specialized Experience

Hands-on experience with Classic ASP, SQL Server 2008R2, asp.net, C#, Relation databases and sql using SQL Server and crystal report.

Desired Experience

At least three years of experience designing, developing, testing and maintaining complex IT programs within a large organization.

Desired Education

Bachelor's Degree in Information Technology, or related disciplines appropriate to the position.

Work Environment

The work is primarily sedentary.